

Jeffrey Nevins

Jeff retired following a 30-year career in fire and EMS in Blaine County, Idaho.

He currently owns and operates Central Valley Fire LLC, a contract firefighting company which provides apparatus and personnel to the federal government for large scale wildland fire incidents.

Throughout his career, he has participated at all levels on hundreds of incidents using the Incident Command System and has taught ICS since 2002.

He currently lives in Hailey with his wife Alesandra and has 3 sons.
He enjoys travel, snowboarding, water skiing, golf, and prospecting.

